Bound for Baylor

Eastwood star to join top program

By Matt Johnson

Paso Times

Eastwood High School track and field standout Jessica Ubanyionwu took her biggest leap yet on Monday — and that's saying nothing for the state's defending triple jump champion.

With her parents, coaches and teammates looking on, Ubanyionwu signed a national letter of intent to accept a track scholarship from Baylor University.

Make no mistake, the senior, who also won silver in the long jump at year at the state meet, is the real deal — and she is getting better and better.

"She's got a lot more — she's never touched a weight in her life," Eastwood track coach Mike McLain said. "If she gets in a good weight program at the university, if she gets in a good running program, she's got a lot more she can go."

Ubanyionwu hopes so. She has her sights set on perhaps making her appearance in the 2012 Olympics.

"It's four years from now, my senior year, so I'm really excited for the Olympics, to see if I'm able to do that," Ubanyionwu said. "I just need to get four more feet and practice my speed."

Her coach certainly thinks that goal is well within reach.

"She's got a long way she can go. She has the potential," McLain said. "She's been ranked nationally for the past two years."

But Monday was a day for celebrating Ubanyionwu's scholarship and the success she's already enjoyed.

"It's been a journey with her. ... I've seen her grow up more than any athlete I've had," said McLain, who is in his fifth year as head coach. "You kind of feel almost like a dad, and you want wherever she's going to take care of her."

Ubanyionwu had her pick of schools, but it was Baylor's medical school and the team's family atmosphere that lured her to Waco.

"They have a good medical school, and I want to become a doctor," Ubanyionwu said. "With the people there, it's less pressure.

Other schools I went to, offered a full ride, but they were more like, 'If you don't get the job done, it will be pulled.'"

And academics is of utmost importance to her and her family.

"Academics is No. 1, because after track, after those four years, I'm not going to be in track for the rest of my life. School is first, because you need to pass before you can run, anyway," Ubanyionwu said. "It's also the reason I picked Baylor, because they only practice for an hour a day. I have time to study. There's a lot of study."

Ubanyionwu's parents are pleased their daughter is putting her education first.

"With all of my children, education is the most important. The pen is mightier than the sword," Godwin Ubanyionwu said. "It's important that they do well in sports, but also not to lose sight of education."

Now that her decision has been made official, Jessica can enjoy her senior year, both on and off the track.

"I just want to PR. I don't need to

Eastwood star signs with NMSU

By John Erfort

El Paso Times

When Jessica Payne first qualified for the Region 1-5A track meet, she got to see a whole other level of skill, speed and competition, and it became her goal to reach that level.

And while the Eastwood senior certainly has done that on the track, she got even more confirmation of it Monday, as she signed to accept a full athletic scholarship for track and field from New Mexico State University.

"It's very rewarding, and I'm very excited," Payne said. "When I first found out (I was getting an offer), I started jumping up and down like a little girl."

"I can't wait to go over there. The team really is like a family, and I like that. And it's very convenient (that Las Cruces is so close); my mom is really happy about that."

Payne, a regional qualifier once again, runs the 100 and 300 hurdles as well as a leg on the Troopers' 1,600-meter relay team.

Such versatility is what Eastwood coach Mike McLain said makes Payne such a star athlete in the sport.

"You won't find another person in the city with the range she has," McLain said. "She runs a leg on our relay, making regionals in the 100 hurdles, and she also made regionals in cross country two years ago. And if I'd put her in the 2-mile, she'd have made regionals in that event."

"As a coach, to have a kid like that on your team, with that kind of range, it gives you all kinds of freedom. That alone makes her a very unique athlete."

Payne has been competing in track and field since she was in seventh grade.

And while she shaped her athletic abilities on the track it was some of the off-track thing that made her such an attractive student-athlete.

"NMSU wanted to recruit her based on her times, but after they visit they came out right away and offered a full scholarship," McLain said. "They saw the kind of person she is."

Payne said Monday's signing was rewarding.

"I could see everyone was excited for me," she said. "I'm very proud of myself. To be able to get a full ride from Division 1 school is great. I feel very proud and honored to have been able to make it this far."

Attention Faculty and Staff,

Your help is needed to support one of our former graduates. In August of last year Mike Pivarnick (c/o 2006) was seriously hurt in a car accident, since then he has had a very slow recovery. He has recently been transferred to a rehabilitation hospital in Houston where his father is by his side 24 hours a day. As a result of this, his family has undergone financial hardship. Our track team is asking for donations of any amount to give to his family, if you are able to make a donation please give what ever you can to Mike McLain or any track coach. If you would like to make a donation when school is out you can contact Mike McLain at 525-1050 or e-mail mmpre@hotmail.com . Thank you very much and we appreciate your generosity.

Eastwood Track would like to say THANK YOU!!!! To the entire

Girls MVP

Eastwood senior Jessica Ubanyionwu, a Baylor signee, won the triple jump with a mark of 41-11½, which was a personal best. She also qualified for state in the long jump after finishing second at regionals with a mark of 19-3½, also a personal best. She jumped 19-0¾ at last year's state meet.

"It's extremely awesome to go back to state," Ubanyionwu said. "I have the best coaches in the world. It feels good and nice. I'd hoped to go back (to state) in both."

"We lost a little bit, some key people, but we have a good core coming back," Troopers head coach Mike McLain said. "What's most important is they have a winning attitude and a good work ethic, which they do a good job of passing to the new people. Most important, I have an awesome coaching staff. It's the best I've been around, and that's saying a lot because I've seen a lot of good coaching staffs."
